Beginner Nose Work Teams

Working spots are available for the Thursday morning Beginner seminar but you must pre-register. All auditors are welcome. Experienced handlers are welcome to come watch and cheer on the new Bull Terrier teams!

Introduction To Nose Work

Thursday October 12, 2017 from 9:30 - 11:30 am

This seminar will introduce the basic concepts you need to start your dog in this fun activity. Although working spots are limited we encourage everyone who is interested in this game to audit. You will learn the basics and should be able to go home and start playing with your dogs!

Introduction class for new teams

Lecture & discussion about the activity and sport of K9 Nose Work®

Demonstrations including one by the world's only Bull Terrier competing at the Elite level!

All beginner dogs are welcome to this class regardless of age, disabilities, or reactivity to other dogs. Every dog must be crate trained and all dogs will be crated away from the search area. Please contact the instructor before signing up if you have any questions or concerns about your dog's eligibility.

Come see why Bull Terriers are great at this game!

Experienced Nose Work Teams

We are currently working on locations and times for more advanced classes. Private lessons will be available throughout the four days of Silverwood but we are hoping to have a class. Please answer the questions at the top to help us plan.

Chris Mason is a Certified Nose Work Instructor with the National Association of Canine Scent Work. She has been handling and competing her Bull Terriers in K9 Nose Work® since 2007. She has taught classes that include all breeds since 2012 and has given several classes exclusively for Bull Terriers as a benefit for Bull Terrier Rescue.

Chris will be available throughout the four days of Silverwood for questions and to listen to how great your Bull Terriers are at Nose Work!
